

Without the no call list, we would be faced with more dinner rage than we have now with the political and police dept., fund raisers. My only hope is that my bank isn't one behind this. Please don't change the list.